

Dear All

I have always believed a good Headteacher knows where their school is heading. They and their team have planned meticulously and have anticipated hurdles to be jumped and problems to be solved. Most importantly they have a clear picture of what successful outcomes look like.

I currently can't claim to have all of those certainties to hand, but I still have these:

- The staff team here are amazing and have gone above and beyond to prepare for whatever the next few weeks and months bring.
- The children are resilient and special and have shown a remarkable character amidst the uncertainty all around them.
- 'Kindness Matters' is going to be more important than ever as a mantra to live by over the coming weeks as peoples worlds become temporarily smaller.

I look forward to seeing you all on the Learning Hub and also to welcoming you back as soon as possible.

Best Wishes

Matt
