Bee House Competition

Wokingham Air Quality Project

Bees are necessary for a healthy earth & human life. However bees have been declining and 35 UK species are under threat of extinction. The good news is we can help and that is where you come in!

Competition Task:

Choose from either Option 1 or Option 2

Option 1 - Make your own bee house and answer the following questions on your submission email;

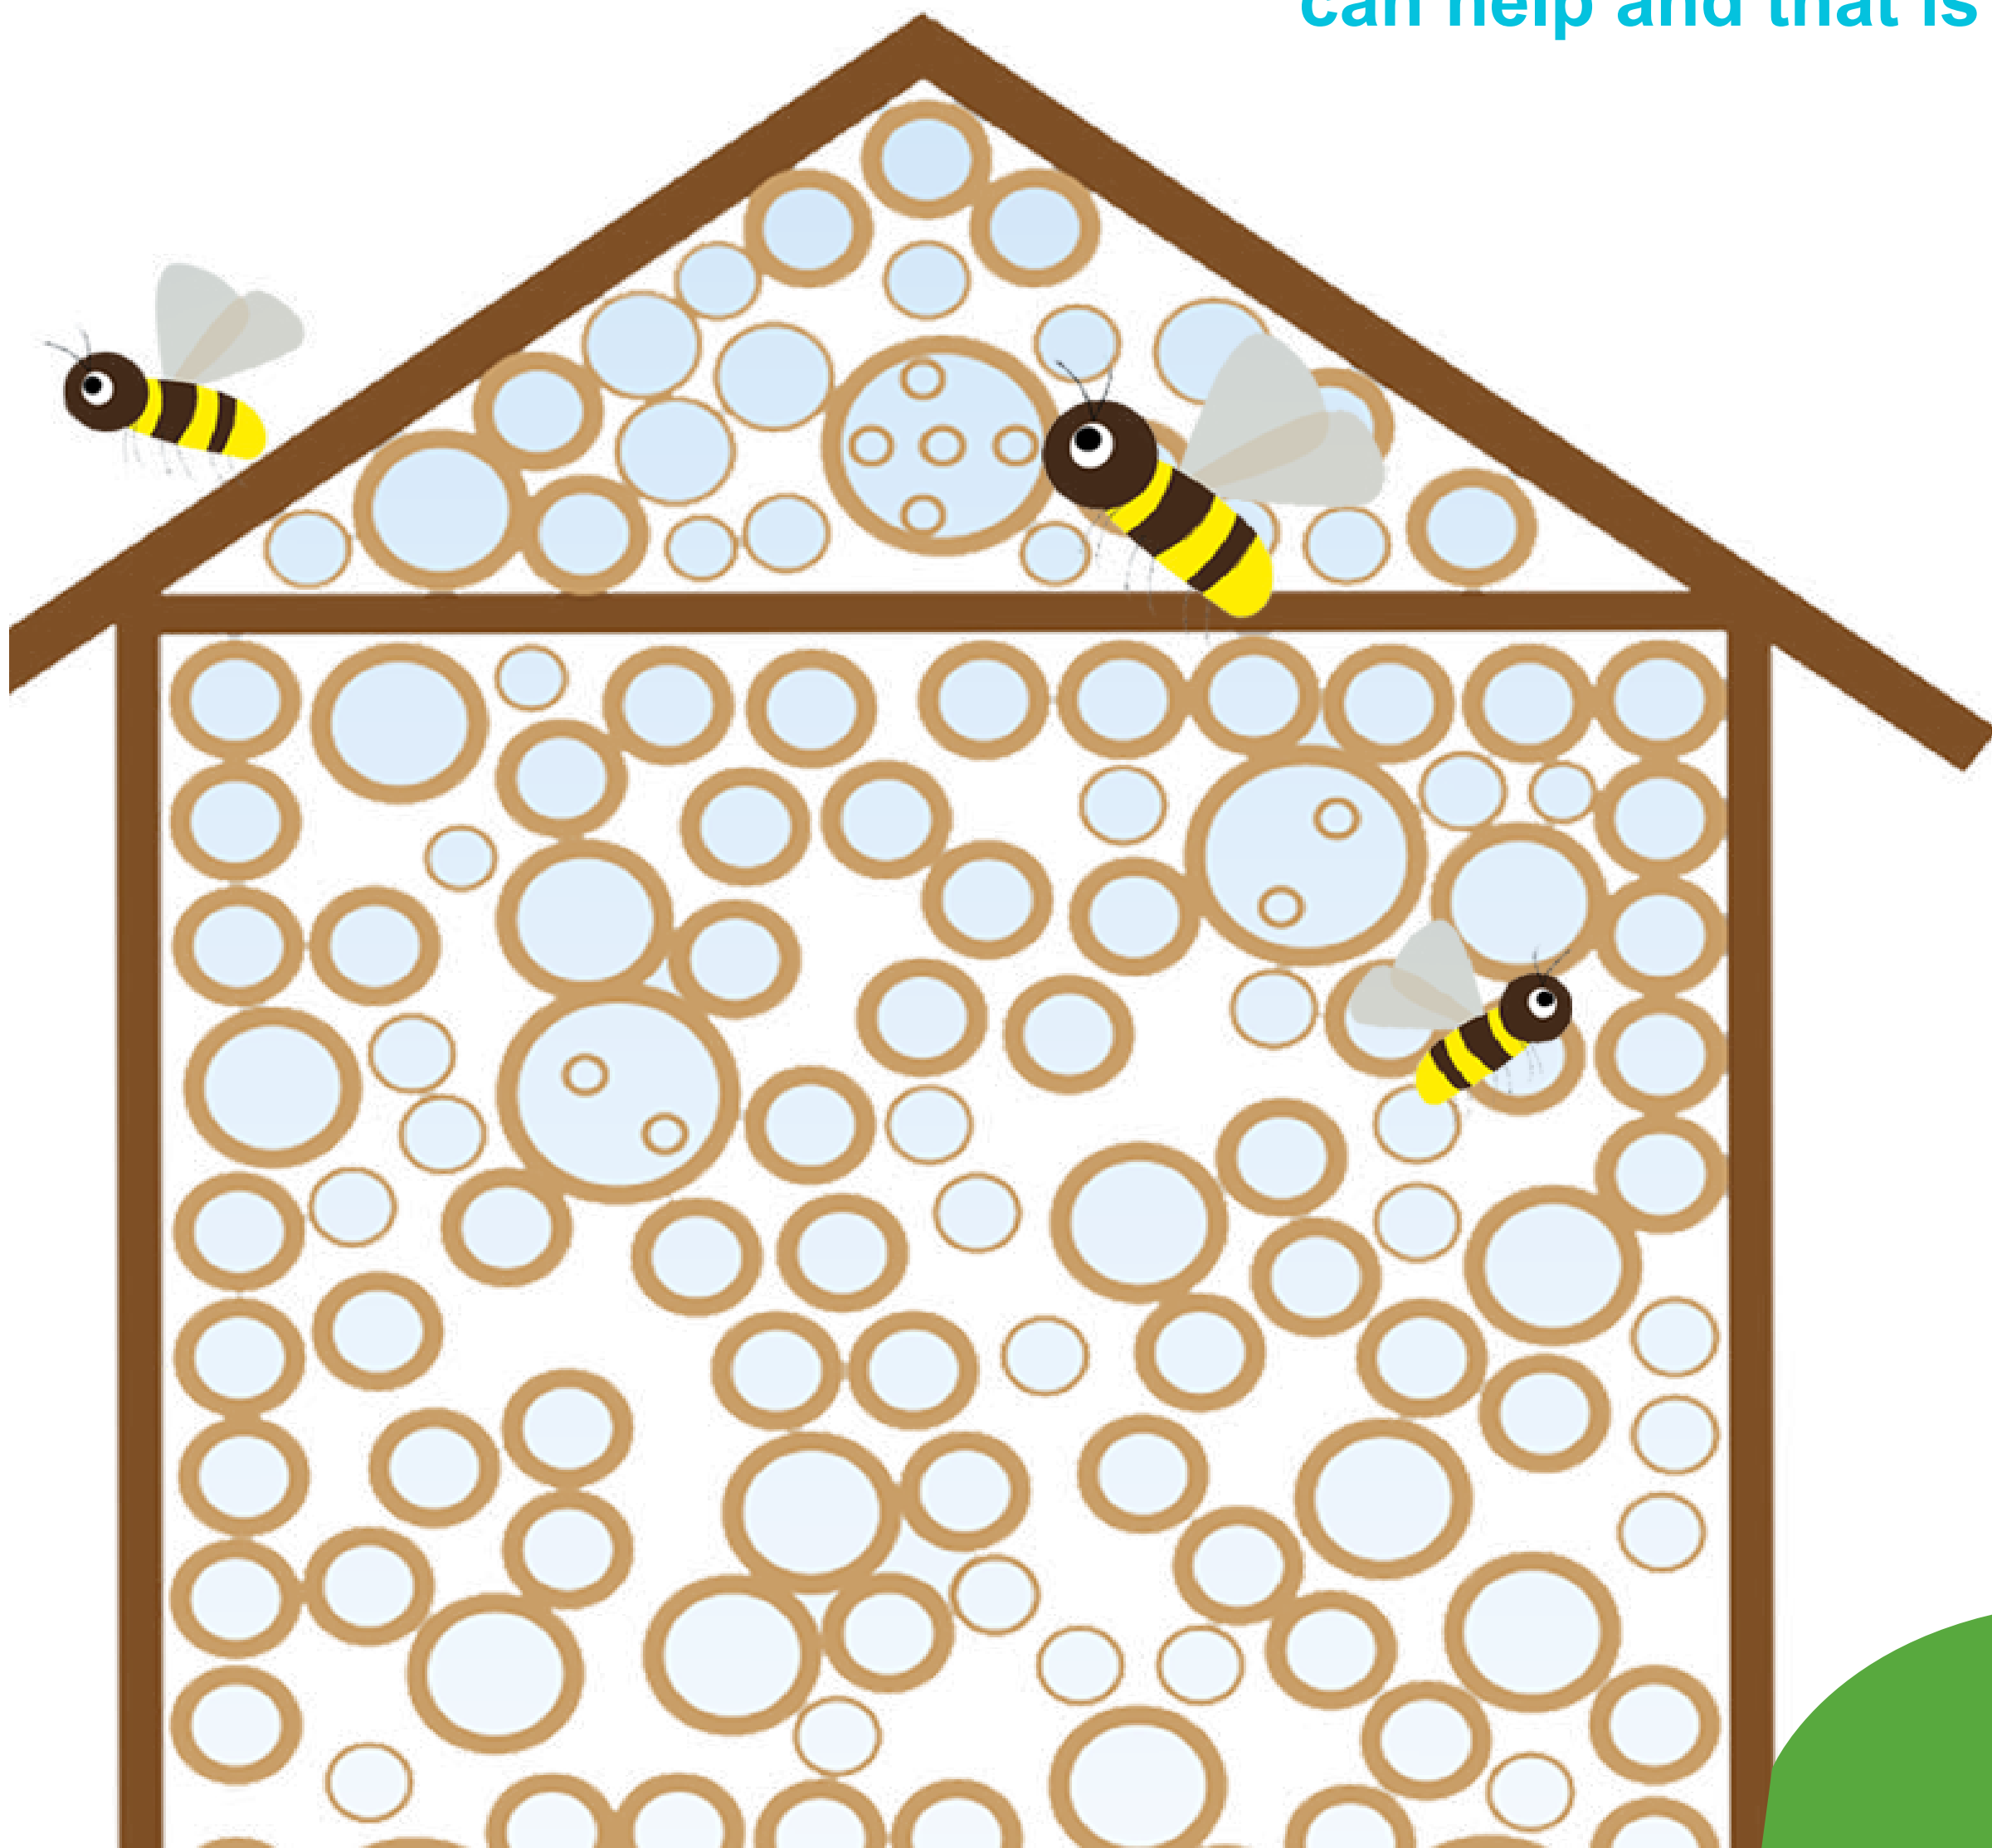

- 1) Why are bees important to our environment and health?
- 2) How does air pollution affect bees?
- 3) What can we do to help them recover?

Option 2 - Create an A4/A3 poster to include a drawing design of a bee house. The poster will be designed to educate people about bees. Do include on your poster;

- 1) Why bees are important to the environment or people's health
- 2) Effects that air pollution have on them
- 3) Tips on how people can help them

For full submission criteria see description on the next page!

Deadline: Sunday 28th February
2021

Important

What to include in the submission:

Option 1 Once you are finished submit your entry by taking a photo of your bee house and emailing it to the submissions email along with your answers to the questions. You can submit your answers by typing it out or you can get a parent/carer to video your answers (if you chose this way, we might ask for parents/carer consent to use the video on social media). Please keep hold of your bee house in case you are a winner!

Option 2 To submit please take a photo or scan in the poster and email to the address below. Please keep hold of the original poster in case you are a winner! (Will also look good displayed on your fridge or on the school notice board!)

TOP TIPS

-For how to make a bee house check out Friends of the Earth, Back Yard Nature, Wildlife Trust and RSPB for instructions online.

-Please make sure the equipment used is child safe and do ask your parent/carer to help if any cutting is involved.

How to enter:

-Please submit completed entries to:
chloe.ennis@wokingham.gov.uk.

-Please include your name (child's name), age and school and parents/guardian name.

To enter the competition the child entering must be registered as a pupil at a school in Wokingham Borough.
